

Privacy Notice

In accordance with the provisions and requirements of The Privacy Act, 2075 (2018) of the Federal Democratic Republic of Nepal, the Chinese Visa Application Service Center Kathmandu (herein after referred to as “CVASC”) will collect and store applicants’ personal information while processing applicants’ Chinese visa application. We hereby inform all applicants that:

1. In order to process applicants’ Chinese visa application, the CVASC will, under the authorization of the applicants, collect and process applicants’ personal information (including but not limited to the applicants’ physical and mental health, family, property, biometrical data, racial and ethnic origin, religious and ideological beliefs, sexual orientation and criminal convictions and crimes);
2. The CVASC collects and processes the applicants’ personal information only for the purpose of processing the applicants’ Chinese visa application;
3. The CVASC strictly complies with relevant laws and regulations in the collection, transmission and storage of personal information;
4. Personal information provided by the applicant will be transferred to and stored at the server of the Embassy of the Peoples’ Republic of China in the Federal Democratic Republic of Nepal. Except for competent authorities relating to the review and issue of the Chinese visa, the CVASC ensures that no personal information will be disclosed to other party;
5. The protection of the applicants’ personal data is crucial to the CVASC. However, despite the measures towards data privacy and data security, there are still possible risks that cannot be completely eliminated. These are in particular:
 - 1) Your personal data could possibly be processed for other purposes than the visa application and gathered by third parties;
 - 2) You possibly cannot enforce your right to information towards the Embassy, the Consulate General and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People’s Republic of China.
6. The applicant can revoke this consent by post, by e-mail or by fax at any time. With a revocation, the legitimacy regarding the processing in the period from the consent to the revocation is inviolate. Should you revoke your consent before the successful finish of your visa application, the CVASC cannot process your order for a visa anymore.

I hereby acknowledge that I have completely read, fully understood and agreed above terms of this document.
